Letter from Dr. Goold M. A. C. to the Magistrates and Inhabitants of the River St. Johns.

His Excellency acquainted with every illegal procedure of the Inhabitants of the River since 14 May 1776. - Hold out measures of ~~lenity~~ ^{lenity} and oblivion for all the past. - And would feel happy if he should be the means of bringing about a reconciliation

Letter from Mr. d. Perley for and in behalf of the Inhabitants.

To The Honourable Arthur Goold In answer to the above. They affirm that their greatest desire is to live in peace. - Ready to attend to any conditions of peace and lenity and oblivion - Had no thoughts of removing or destroying any of the Cannon on the River.

from St. Johns Barbours 14 May 1777

Letter, Dr. Goold M. A. C. to the Inhabitants of St. Johns River.

Notices with pleasure their unanimous resolution to observe loyalty and obedience.
Surprised that they suffer the Inflammatory to disturb the public tranquillity. - Trust that the word "Committee" had nothing to dread as to frighten a loyal ~~people~~ people
- Recommends the forming a Committee to favour the Government. - Acquaints them of the arrival of Howe and Preble

- Offers a reward of One hundred Pounds for the Apprehension of Moore. Announces the intended visit with the three branches of the

Copy Letter

From A. Gould M. A. M. C.

To The Inhabitants of the River St Johns.
Regretting his want of success in bringing in those who absented themselves from obtaining the mild conditions offered. Requests that the Absentees be sent to Halifax before they be allowed to settle. Requests that they would pay no ^{more} respect to those who lately styled themselves their Rulers more than to common members of the Community.

10 St Johns River May 20 1777.

Copy Letter from Arthur Gould M. A. M. C.

To The Reverend Mr Lyon at Mechanics Recapitulates former attachments, calls attention to the state and prospects of his people. Asks him to convene his people and send a deputation to Halifax with terms of submission, all the past to be buried in oblivion. Commercial intercourse to be the result. Urges the importance of acceding to the request for the peace and welfare of Society.
