186	2	14 August 1782	25-32	Whitehall	Earl [Shelburne] to Admiral Pigott (most secret); Ordered to New York to assist General Carleton after leaving sufficient security at Barbados and the Leeward Islands, to take on board as many troops as can to take to Barbados; King intends West Indies to be seat of War during the next campaign and expects cooperation with Carleton in preservation of those Islands to Britain
186	2	6 August 1782	41-46	Warwick, Sandy Hook	Rear-Admiral Robert Digby to Earl Shelburne; Account of his proceedings: loss of ship "Blonde" in Boston Bay after capturing a mast ship; depredations committed by American privateers at Lunenburg, Nova Scotia (Sir Andrew Hammond to give account in enclosed);

					arrival on coast of part of French fleet under Command of Monsieur Vaudreuil, off Chesapeake nearly captured 'Centurion' and worried may have taken sloop "Polecat", engagement of "Margarita" with the "Amazon" frigate, Capt. Salter obliged to quit her and imagine taken to Boston by Americans; precautions taken with small force I have to retard French getting within Sandy Hook; many ships there; remarks on gallant actions off Halifax by Lt. Crymess in armed brig. "Observer" who took an American privateer of superior force after a very severe action 186	2	10 July 1782	47-50	Halifax	A. S. Hamond [Lt. Gov. of Nova Scotia 1781-1782] to Rear-Admiral Robert Digby; Account of privateers at Lunenburg, Nova Scotia, depredations to and efforts to assist, rebels plundered town of merchandise, burnt blockhouses, and dwelling houses of Col. of Militia whom they carried off a prisoner and after ransoming town for £1000 made off with booty; concerned and requests two armed brigs in addition to "Observer" to protect coast from these plunderers (enclosure of 6 August 1782)
186	2	13 September 1782	71-78	"Prince George", off New York	Rear-Admiral Robert Digby to Earl Shelburne; Movements of vessels: French fleet here with Admiral Pigot; two convoys from Europe with "Renown" and "Emerald" at Halifax; French Fleet at Boston; "Magnifique" totally lost going into Boston; Sir Guy Carleton's intention to move from Charlestown to Halifax immediately, convoys wanted from Charlestown for West Indies, St. Augustine and "Europe"; "Prudent" detained in West Indies; Lord Rodney taken "Canada" to England; "Rotterdam" and "Orpheus" sent to Europe; important to have superior force on coast in spring, if my line of battle ships go to West Indies, defense here will depend upon Admiral Pigot

186	2	27 October 1782	83-88	Whitehall	Earl [Shelburne] to Admiral Pigot; Importance emphasized to give all possible protection to loyalists now evacuating, those evacuating from Charles Town and Savannah are most concerned about their property; remarks - I have fullest confidence that officers under your direction will "instead of molesting them, afford them protection and assistance"
186	2	25 October 1782	125-132	"Prince George", off New York	Rear-Admiral Robert Digby to Earl Shelburne; Sir Guy Carleton- will give every assistance to, Carleton thinks it too late to retake Island of Providence and he is not able to spare anything for Bermuda; squadron is reduced due to number of convoys needed for the evacuation of the Southern Posts; concerned about lateness in year of the evacuation out of Charles Town to Halifax; indicates would have to depend on Admiral Pigot for protection in case enemy should send ships of the line along the Coast; Admiral Pigot ordered every line of battle ships of this squadron that he found in West Indies to return then with him or Lord Hood; considering great want of transports here, cannot expect many to return to Europe in the fall; three transports or victuallers sent home as cartels with prisoners to France and Spain (no means of keeping them here); many American prisoners sent from England taken in privateers, debt of prisoners in our favor is growing; two transports captured at Boston and expect they will use on some expeditions.

					ratification of peace, recalled cruisers upon the coast, transports and the "Lion" halted by Sir Guy Carleton from proceeding to West Indies; necessity of shipping and since difficult to attain from England, will write to Admiral Pigot to propose sending 14 or 15 sail of his fleet, of which Carleton approves; mentions inhabitants of St. Augustine who will want to move and inability to depend on ships from West Indies, which never return, gives examples
186	2	15 June 1783	293-300	Whitehall	[Townshend] to Rear-Admiral Robert Digby; Instructions concerning the evacuation of New York: to send to England all foreign troops, expect will need most of the transports for this, remaining to be used for troops, public stores with provisions, and Loyalists and their property, amenable to Sir Guy Carleton's wishes; to procure whatever shipping can: trading vessels at New York, any prizes taken by squadrons; to employ vessels in the most useful way due to scarcity of shipping in England; transports are on their way, cannot depend on vessels from West Indies: two divisions of squadrons have arrived in England and Lord Hook is on his way from Jamaica, and few remaining expected to follow
186	2	23 May 1783	301-304	"Lion", off New York	Rear-Admiral Robert Digby to Townshend; Necessity of more shipping, expresses "distressing" situation: requires shipping from the Army prisoners taken at York Town and elsewhere, part of which are to go to Jamaica and part to Quebec; has not received orders since Declaration of Peace; praises work of Sir Guy Carleton
186	2	25 November 1783	323-326	"Amphion", off Staten Island	Rear-Admiral Robert Digby to Lord North; Six shipping requirements for remainder of British troops; in lieu of orders to leave and direction from Sir Charles Douglas, appointed to the Command, will return to England as soon as Sir Guy Carleton and Troops leave this place; concerned about Loyalists for want of covering at the various ports and ordered commanding officer to detain transports for their “preservation”, and any other transports available to go to St. Augustine in case needed for evacuation
