9 BONDS, LICENCES AND CERTIFICATES, and related documents, U.C., 1801-1867

Volumes 1-78 - 20 feet / 610

Correspondence relating to the issuance of licences and the fees paid, accounts and returns of licences issued, bonds and certificates submitted by persons applying for licences, and related documents, 1301-1867. The records are arranged in several sub-series by type of document, <sup>and licence</sup> and within each alphabetically by the applicant's name or numerically by the number assigned to the document. The marriage bonds are available on microfilm, as noted in the shelf list.

A separate card index exists for the marriage bonds (volumes 13-44) giving the names of the prospective bride and groom but not that of the bondsmen. Index cards for the medical licence certificates (volumes 61-68) and the bonds of public officials (volumes 71-78 but not 71A) have been integrated into the General Index.

It may be noted that the Collector of Customs was charged with the issuance of certain types of licences, notably those of auctioneers, hawkers and pedlars. He reported to the Civil Secretary periodically on the number of licences issued and the fees collected.

95 (relabelled and partially reboxed - vols. 11-12 need to be flattened; all volumes not yet indexed should be checked for proper arrangement, page-numbered, and indexed, with the possible exception of ledgers & registers; list for unnumbered bonds in vol. 71 being integrated into General Index)
