

RS566 PROVINCIAL SECRETARY: OLD SOLDIERS AND
WIDOWS PENSION ADMINISTRATION RECORDS

VOLUME: 30 cm.

DATES: 1837-1867

~~RESTRICTIONS: Records must be used on microfilm~~

INDEX: Nominal index follows

BACKGROUND:

Although the British Army provided a pension for discharged soldiers, many of the old soldiers and/or their widows who resided in New Brunswick in the mid-nineteenth century were in destitute situations. By An Act for the Relief of Old Soldiers of the Revolutionary War and Their Widows (2 Victoria, 1839), soldiers or their widows could receive an annual pension from the Court of General Sessions in their county. The Clerk of the Court of General Sessions (later County Council) paid the sums and forwarded the appropriate petitions, schedules, and vouchers to the Provincial Secretary for reimbursement. By the coming of Confederation in 1867 when the Government of Canada assumed responsibility for matters of defence, most of the pensioners were deceased.

MATERIAL:

The records in this series were the jurisdiction of the Provincial Secretary who recommended payment of monies to the counties. The petitions and correspondence concerns the soldiers and widows, or, in some cases, individuals who had been supporting the pensioner and were seeking reimbursement. The schedules (sometimes with vouchers attached) were forwarded from the county to verify expenditures.

RS566 PROVINCIAL SECRETARY: OLD SOLDIERS AND WIDOWS PENSION ADMINISTRATION RECORDS

These records are a rich source for those doing military history, social history, or genealogy. The detail provided on the military engagements and military units in which the soldiers served is wonderful. In many cases, there is enough information to compose a biographical sketch of the old soldier. ~~Of special interest to the genealogist is the detail on~~ date and place of marriage of the soldier, which is included in several counties.

These records are not complete, but, even so, they comprise a valuable and colourful source on New Brunswick history. Researchers should note that other such information can be located in RS24 Legislative Assembly Sessional Records, in RS558 Regular Army Records, in RS559 New Brunswick Militia Records, and in RG2 Records of the Central Executive.
