Grand Jury Presentments:

- Generally, they find less incumbrances in the streets and highways than usual, but still some nuisances are apparent
- A dangerous hole is left open on the line of the wharves of Mr. MacDonald and Mr. Jarvis on St. John Street, which exposes foot passengers to great hazard
- A log is required to be put between the platform in St. John Street opposite Mr. Lovett and Mr. Thomas
- A Bad Place in the wharf corner of Lake Stores in Nelson Street
- Conceive it highly proper that an open well on the vacant ground of Younghusband Estate should be covered up or nailed in
- A large quantity of [plank and knees?] have been left in Prince William Street, to the great annoyance of the public
- Flight of steps erected for access to Bailey's House is a flagrant encroachment of the street
- Encroachments have been made on the public grounds and highways encumbering the public landing
